Zechariah-

The Quietest of the Advent Voices

Surely you remember good ol' Zechariah from the Bible, don't you? If not, let me try to narrow it down a bit. Do you remember the good ol' Zechariah who we meet in the first chapter of Luke's gospel? He is the last entry under said him, perhaps even forgotten who he was. You see he was married to lady named Elizabeth for a good long time and, while their many years together were blessed in a great many ways, the two of them had seemingly been overlooked in one significant way – they had had no child.

In addition, Zechariah, who was a temple priest in Jerusalem, seldom had the opportunity to perform what must have been one of the most desirable parts of his work. He was one of thousands of temple priests who waited patiently for their bi-annual one-week rotation in the temple. More specifically within his two weeks of temple service each year Zechariah no doubt waited with great hope for the chance to enter into the inner sanctum to tend to the incense altar in order that prayers might be lifted up to God Almighty. He had been passed over by the casting of lots a great many times and was an old man when his name was finally chosen.

What a day in the life of Zechariah, finally it would be he and God alone in the heart of the temple - except it wasn't just he and God alone. If you are remembering the story now you'll remember that an angel of the Lord named Gabriel was present as well. It turns out, according to Gabriel, that God had not overlooked Zechariah & Elizabeth but, rather, had chosen them to bear a son who would announce and prepare the way for the arrival the long-awaited Messiah, the birth of our Savior Jesus Christ.

Somewhat startled, I imagine, Zechariah poses a seemingly fair question: 'How will I know that this is so?' and it gets him even more attention from God, albeit the wrong kind of attention. Gabriel rationalizes in response to Zechariah's question, "because you did not believe my words... you will become mute, unable to speak". And thus, the Zechariah of many biblical Zechariahs, the New Testament temple priest who has an up-close encounter with the angel of the Lord, and the first witness to the dawning age of the coming of the long-awaited Messiah becomes the quietest of all the Advent voices.

You may remember the occasion when Zechariah is finally allowed to speak again, it's nine plus months after his encounter with Gabriel the angel. Elizabeth has given birth to a son and on the eighth day of his life he is to be named and marked outwardly as a child of God's. The naming becomes the stumbling block on that long-ago day. There is no discussion about the boy being marked outwardly in circumcision but there is plenty of discussion as to what his name will be. Finally, it is Zechariah who declares in writing (all caps I always imagine) THE BOY'S NAME SHALL BE JOHN.

The gospel writer Luke records that giving the child the name John, or Zechariah getting his voice back, or him praising God with great passion caused quite a ruckus that day. It elicited fear that came out in the form of a collective question, "What then will this child become?"

The answer to that question comes in the last 14 verses of Luke, chapter one. You should read it as a reminder this Advent season. It is a powerful and important prophesy from the quietest of all the Advent voices announcing the coming of the Savior of the world. It is also a birth announcement for

Like so many things in our world, the pandemic has scuttled the ability for OELC youth to gather and plan events since early 2020, but we're starting to ramp things up again! On Sunday November 7, a group of senior high youth had a great time in the new Youth Room for pizza and the movie "Back to the Future." Soon folding chairs will be moved out and comfy furniture will be moved in, and plans are being made for preparing the walls to be painted. Once the prep work is done, youth grades 6-12 will be able to help design and paint the walls and hang curtains. The Youth Room is available on Sunday mornings and Wednesday nights, but really can be used any time the church is open.

Maybe even more exciting is that a senior high mission trip with Appalachia Service Project is in the works. As I write this, we have registered for summer 2022, giving them a first and second choice of weeks in July and a first and second choice of states to travel to. When ASP lets me know these details, I will pass them along via family e-mail, Facebook, and bulletin announcements. We can add people as long as ASP has space for the chosen week, so if youth haven't signed up, please contact me ASAP. Please DO NOT let financial concerns keep youth from signing up—we will do fundraisers and have scholarship moneys available as needed. Adult crew leaders/chaperones needed!

The next senior high event is a Christmas party planned for Sunday evening, December 12th at 6:00 in the Youth Room. Those attending are asked to bring a wrapped gift ($10 range) to include in a gift exchange game. We'll also have food and Christmas music. Any adults willing to help plan and host, please contact me.

Another quick but sincere "thank you" to all who helped at the Harvest Supper! The enthusiasm and hard work of the youth set the tone for all involved that day.

Congrats to all who were part of the recent choir and band concerts! It's great to see and hear the talent of the young people in our congregation and our community, and I look forward to future concerts. Best of luck to those getting ready for winter sports; have a fun and safe season!

Wishing everyone a blessed Advent and a wonder-full Christmas!

Christmas Message to the Northwest Synod of Wisconsin

Psalm 137:4 How can we sing the Lord's song in a foreign land?

In 1926, my maternal grandmother left Germany and immigrated to the United States. One of my earliest memories is singing Silent Night (Stille Nacht) in German by the Christmas tree in her small house in Jackson, MN. I wonder what it was like for her to move to a foreign land not speaking the language. I wonder how difficult it must have been for her to sing her song in a foreign land.

Last Christmas most of us couldn't gather inside our church buildings to sing Silent Night on Christmas Eve. Some of us sang to our computer screens, some sang in their cars in the parking lot, some sang with masks. We were all trying to sing the Lord's song in a foreign land, the land of COVID. It has been difficult. Our song has been muted.

Psalm 137 is a lament Psalm. The writer of Psalm 137 is describing the pain of the people who were forced to live in a foreign land after witnessing the destruction of their homeland and their temple. They are grieving the losses, lamenting, crying, and finding it impossible to "sing the Lord's song in a foreign land."

My heart goes out to the Afghan Refugees who are experiencing their first winter at Fort McCoy. I wonder how difficult it will be for them to sing their songs of faith in a foreign land. Many know that they will never go home again.

In Luke 1 Mary sings her song in unknown territory. She has received the message from Gabriel that she will bear God's son and his name is to be Jesus, and he will reign as king forever. This incomprehensible message is confirmed by her relative Elizabeth and changes Mary's life's circumstances. Mary is asked to do what no one has ever done before. This is uncharted and foreign territory for a young girl. She sings her song in a foreign land like her sisters before her Miriam, Ruth, and Hannah. She sings a song of courage, faith, hope, and love.

This Advent/Christmas/Epiphany season I invite you to reflect on Mary's song as an old song sung in new circumstances. Many of us and our churches find ourselves dealing with circumstances we might not have chosen for ourselves and wish were different, circumstances that might cause us to lament and grieve. We are here now. Sing. Join Mary and the faithful of every time and place, that great cloud of witnesses, and sing of courage, faith, hope, and love. Sing. Sing an old song of trust in unfamiliar territory, and sing a new song of hope in a new land. We are here now.

May the Hope of Advent, Joy of Christmas and Light of Epiphany bring you Peace.

Bishop Laurie

Luke 1:46-49
And Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord, and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior, for he has looked with favor on the lowliness of his servant. Surely, from now on all generations will call me blessed; for the Mighty One has done great things for me, and holy is his name."

This is YOUR Chance!

If we've not called you yet, this is your chance to raise your hand, so to speak, to let the Nominating Committee know of your willingness to serve in one of several volunteer roles in congregational leadership for the coming year.

The Nominating Committee is seeking candidates to stand for election for 3 three-year terms on the Congregation Council, as well as three members to serve as representatives to the synod assembly next May, two members to serve as representatives on the OELC Endowment Committee, two-four members to join the Personnel Committee (to assist and advise the Council on matters of personnel administration), two-four members to join the Stewardship/Finance Committee and two new Nominations Committee members, to assist next year's outgoing Council members in this same work.

Of these roles, serving on the Council is perhaps the most "time-intensive," and yet even these leaders serve only a few hours each month: one 60-120-minute meeting, the 2nd Wednesday of each month, after 30-60 minutes of meeting preparation and review, plus serving on various work groups or committees, for another 30-60 minutes each month. A total commitment of less than five hours each month, and yet together, these leaders can support the works of countless volunteers and staff, all throughout our congregation.

We hope you'll hear this call and be moved to reach out. Preparations are being finalized this month for the upcoming election and activities for the annual meeting at the end of January. Are you ready to say "YES!"? Contact any member of the Nominating Committee: Brent McCune, Patty Hoffman, Linda Heiman, Vern Larson, or Shannon Hasz. They'd all be happy to answer questions or share their experiences. Don't delay any longer, your moment is now!
